Dear [REDACTED]

STAT

Enclosed is the paper you requested indicating the areas of particular interest to the Committee staff for discussion at our meeting with CIA OCA, OGC and OS representatives on the CIA Security Protective Service (tentatively set for the early afternoon of Friday, June 20, 1986 at CIA Headquarters). We would also like to discuss the subject mentioned in the third paragraph of the letter of June 4, 1986 from the Director, Office of Congressional Affairs to Chairman Hamilton, with particular emphasis on what makes that subject special from a legal and practical point of view.

Sincerely,

David S. Addington

Counsel, Subcommittee on Legislation
